feature musicians from all over the Midlands.

The idea is the brainchild of Axelle Parker, who works for Newlife, and her musician husband Ian, who is taking part.

Ian said: "Originally, it was just going to be my gig, but the idea snowballed and we're really grateful to the artists who are helping out."

The Cannock-based charity has enlisted the aid of Wolverhampton's Scott Matthews, Birmingham's Steve Gibbons, and Kidderminster-based act Lucy and the Rambler.

Axelle said: "This event is a perfect way for lovers of live music to have a good night out and do something for charity. The line up of top-quality artists from across the county is a great way of showing just what the West Midlands has to offer."

Babies take to water

NEW "water babies" classes are starting in Cannock this month. Babies as young as just a few days old will be able to take part in swimming classes starting in the hydrotherapy pool at Cannock Hospital. The Water Babies programme, designed to make the most of babies natural affinity with water, teaches confidence and safety, using water, teaches confi-dence and safety, using dence and safety, using specialist techniques that see many swimming short distances from as young as 30 months. Heidi Hunter-Cope, who was introduced to the concept when she took her babies to classes in Bristol, has re-trained as a swimming instruc-tor and just over a year ago started up her own classes in Shropshire and the Black Country.

"The lessons give you such a feel good factor—and I'll never get over the thrill of seeing babies swimming underwater," she said.
"Everyone is act."

Indoor training sessions will be held every Monday at Cannock Chase High School, Hednesford Road.
Juniors of all abilities can train. Sessions for under-nines and under-11s are between 6pm and 7.15pm. For under-15s and 16s, sessions will start at 7.15pm and run until to 8.30pm.
New senior players are welcome to train on Mondays at the same venue from 8.30pm to 10pm. CANNOCAS former MF has said the flad serious concerns as long as two decades ago about Stafford Hospital.

Tony Wright told the Francis Inquiry of his fears about the way the hospital was managed in the early 1990s. Mr Wright took some complaints from constituents to the Parliamentary Ombudsment but accepted that he never raised his worries with anyone other than hospital management.

Mr Wright, who is the first former MP from Staffordshire to appear before the inquiry, said: "I felt that there were serious lead ership issues at both executive and non-executive level, and I remember wondering who was actually running Stafford Hospital.

"This word culture has appeared regularly, and I think it is the key word. Cultures are not made or unmade in a short space of time.

"I was unimpressed by the leadership of the trust over a very long period."

Mr Wright, Labour MP for Cannock Chase from 1992-2010, said the hospital often had financial problems and seemed "always to have a difficulty in getting a grip of what was happening".

He realled one incident in the early 1990s when he was told by an ambulance paramedic about concerns over the care at Stafford.

He said: "Alogal ambulanceman told."

Basic

Mr Wright said that he received some "serious" complaints which raised "rather basic quality of care issues" which he raised with former hospital boss Martin Yeates.

"I took them up with the trust, and they told me they were on to them."

Counsel to the inquiry Tom Kark QC asked the former MP if he accepted the assurances given by Mr Yeates.

Mr Wright replied: "I wasn't accepting them. I was pressing him and he in turn was reassuring me."

During his evidence, the Labour politician defended his decision not to support the vote for a public inquiry in the Commons, saying it had become "hopelessly politicised." But he accepted that the handling of the scandal by the Labour Government had been poor.

Mr Price explained that some time after initial questioning by police, the teenager gave a statement admitting he had been alone in the field on February 16, 2010, between 9pm and 10pm.

Mr Price added that the teenager has admitted he bought a crossbow at a car boot sale 18 months prior to the incident.

He added that he had fired the crossbow in the field, in the dark, at trees, Mr Price said. A damning Healthcare Commission report in March 2009 suggested there had been hundreds of needless deaths of patients at the Weston Road hospital over a period of years. The inquiry con-tinues at Stafford civic offices.

Family firm's delight as conversion wins award

Building up to get top prize

A BURNTWOOD-based building firm has scooped an award at a ceremony which recognises exceptional building work in the region. Anthony Webb and Son has been handed the Building Excellence Award by Lichfield District Council for its work converting an old barn to a house in Shenstone. ### Sale to benefit cancer charity

RESIDENTS in Burntwood are being urged to help out with a secondary school's forthcoming table top sale.

Chase Terrace Technology College is hosting the event – organised by pupils – on Saturday March 5 to raise money for Pancreatic Cancer UK.

Six pupils from the school's Special Education Needs (SEN) department were asked to come up with fundraising ideas and plan an event from start to finish.

Their work will go towards a Certificate of Personal Effectiveness (CoPE) – the equivalent to a GCSE grade.

The SEN department has already raised £1,000 for charity in the current school year and teacher Kim Tonks said they were hoping for a bumper turnout for the table top sale.

"We do a lot of fundraising here and the children play a big part in that," she said.

"Hopefully we can get lots of local people to come to the sale and raise a lot of money for a great cause."

A raffle and tombola will be held on the day,

Bereavement Care celebrates 30 years

THIS year Lichfield Cruse Bereavement Care is celebrating 30 years since it was started.

We are compiling a history of the branch and would be pleased to hear from anyone who received support either individually from one of our voluntiation.

Criticism of drugs programme missed the point

IS Council Leader Neil Stanley for real? Working on the assumption he took time out from his busy schedule to watch the programme, he would have seen that How Drugs Work wasn't about Cannock or the surrounding district. It was about a young man, like many people in the town and up and down the country, partaking in drug use. This was, as stated by the BBC spokesman about personal experiences and chemical impact on the body. However, instead of acknowledging the harm this young man is doing to himself, his body and his family and friends, Councillor Stanley was more upset that he recognised the mural in Cannock park, where a shot of him taking the substance was taken. Councillor, you have missed the point. I am sure that a lot of good work has been done with the Respect project but this programme and this individual will do a lot more good for anti-drugs campaigns both in the district and nationwide support either individually from one of our volunteers — or through attending social groups at St.Mary's Centre Lichfield or at other venue during the past 30 years.

Please either ring our Helpline 01543 433479, or write to Cruse Bereavement Care, c/o Lichfield Council of Voluntary Services, Mansell House, 30 Bore Street, Lichfield, WS13 6LL.

We will respect the confidence of anyone who contacts us in response to this letter.

nonsensical rubbish about his misinterpretation of the programme and its meaning, He now wants to start a witchhunt on the young man and possibly get him reprimanded/arrested 'after the horse has bolted' and, if he is in Council housing, he will 'take action'. Well, first of all, I am surprised that the young man wasn't caught while taking the drug in Cannock Park as that, it seems, is the popular congregation area for the towns PCSOs to spend their shifts talking to the parks wardens, instead of patrolling the town where most of the population tend to be.

Im sure you want to help, but you cannot be all things to all people, let the police do their job and you do yours, both, may I add, out of the public purse. Secondly, please tell us on what grounds has the young man in question, if he is a council housing tenant, broken any tenancy agreements?

housing tenant, broken any tenancy agreements

If he was approved for said housing and there is a "no rugs" policy in place on the agreement, then your vetting policy should be better. I work for a housing association in Birmingham, and if we were to take this approach, I would suggest that there would be a lot of people homeless in my area. Where will it stop? Will you be hunting down people who pay council tax in your district and "take action" if they use illegal drugs? Councillor Stanley, please get a grip. The crimes this young lad has committed are that he took an illegal drug, regardless of his television appearance, and that he came across as a very poor, sub-standard human being (being in the army and leaving may have impacted heavily on his life or he may have never been anything else). However, this programme will do a lot more to shrink the drug culture and help people understand the devastating effects of these drugs. Councillor Stanley, in future, engage your brain before opening your mouth.

Other famous objectors, who have signed a letter claiming that such a sale would be "misjudged and short-sighted", include the Archbishop of Canterbury, artist Tracey Emin, chef Hugh Fearnley-Whittingstall, Ken Livingstone, broadcaster Dame Joan Bakewell, actor Richard E Grant and designer Dame Viviand designer Dame Vivi enne Westwood.

The letter by the Save England's Forests cam-paign said a Bill being debated in Parliament would allow the Government to sell the entire public forest estate to commercial interests. It also expressed fears that over time, access to public woodland would become limited and its protection eroded

The campaigners urged the Government to suspend any significant sales 'until the public has been fully consulted'.

Housing bid fears

A COUNCILLOR has the future of a multi-million pound housing development, saying road networks would be put under strain. Around 750 homes could be built on land to the west of Pye Green Road and north of Limepit Lane, in Hednesford.

But Hednesford town
councillor Bob Todd said

councillor Bob Todd said the development was a step "too far" for the area. He fears roads and infrastructure would be left at breaking point if the scheme was approved.

Councillor Todd said: "We need to keep our open spaces, not make the town into a concrete jungle."

A draft development brief has been created.

WHAT a brilliant start for the first meeting of 2011! The weather, although very cold, was dry and meant the ladies turned out in force. The club was pleased to welcome six new ladies: Joan, Margaret, Anne, Shirley, Greta and Carolyn. In total, 43 attended and the atmosphere was lively with everyone catching up as they had not met properly for some weeks. The social evening in December had been cancelled due to the dreadful weather and the ladies were pleased to learn that it had been rescheduled for our next meeting, today (Thursday February 3).

Southport, Stratford Upon Avon, Lincoln and Worcester.

Dilys presented Jean with flowers to thank her for her sterling efforts throughout the last year. Gail and Margaret also received flowers for maintaining the scrap books and sending the reports of meetings to the local papers.

The evening's speaker was physiotherapist Roy Hughes, whose talk was entitled The common causes of Ouch! Roy is now 73 years old and he told how he had gained his degree in physiotherapy and had paid for this by lecturing in pharmacology. He has led an interesting and varied life, having been part of an acrobatic troupe for some time. He is about to ride around South Holland with a group of other cyclists.

After refreshments, the raffle was drawn and was won by Maureen. Our next proper meeting will be on Thursday February 17, at 7.30 in the meeting room at the rear of Sankeys Corner Library.

A FUNDRAISING group has raised more than $3,000 to help pay for lifesaving equipment at Cannock Hospital. Penkridge Goodies organised a sponsored walk in October.

A cheque for £3,250 has been handed over to the British Heart Foundation to go towards a 3D echocardiograph machine, which helps diagnose heart disease. The charity needs to raise £68,000. Goodies member Winifred Laffan, aged 86, who suffers from heart problems, said: "I had wanted to do something for a while to raise money for the appeal so I decided to organise the walk."

AN 80s pop star with a home in joined by fellow 80s singer Debbie Cannock was at the premiere of a film glison in New York for the world presented and the premiers of Mega Python vs Gatoroid.

Both stars have acting roles in the film. Tiffany, who married Cannock businessman Benn George in 2004, was chart success with 1987 hit I Think recorded some new material for the soundtrack.

We're Alone Now, also recorded some new material for the soundtrack. The monster movie is a production by film company The Asylum. The company's previous films include Alien vs Hunter, Allan Quatermain and the Temple of Skulls, and Mega Piranha — which also starred Tiffany.

Tiffany Darwish, who hails originally from Michigan, now divides her time between Cannock and Los Angeles. She still records music but launched a foray into acting recently. The Asylum's movies

Couple pay tribute to son in crash tragedy

ADISTRAUGHT Cannock couple have paid tribute to their son, killed in a car crash just days after his 30th birthday.

Paul Woodcroft's Honda S2000 hit a tree beside the A449 Stafford Roda, near Coven, last Saturday.
Speaking from their home in Norton East Road, Norton Canes, which they shared with their son, Denise and Derek Woodcroft were still coming to terms with their loss this week, but insisted the computer software worker was not the type of person to drink and drive, or speed irresponsibly.

Mrs Woodcroft said: "He didn't meally drink. On his 21st birthday ben didn't drink. On his 21st birthday in the didn't drink. On his 21st birthday broad strugging to accept that Paul is gone.

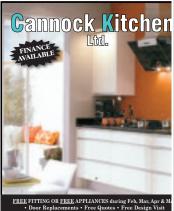

"He has always been very health, never having been sick or Solve and the got the doctor.

Police give licensing committee list of problems

Pub's hours face cut following complaints

faces a cut in opening hours as Staffordshire Police has asked Cannock Chase Council for a review of its premises licence.

review of its premises licence. They wrote to the council licensing sub committee with a list of problems officers had to deal at The Shrew, Market Street. They have 47 incidents recorded during 2010. The pub currently opens between 10am and 12am, Monday to Wednesday, and 10am to 3am, Thursday to Saturday. However, this could soon change. Councillor Frank Allen, who sits on the sub-committee, said pubs have closed in the past after repeated problems with crime and disorder. He said: "It happened to the pub we always used to call The Sinking Ship (later called the Moon Under the Water) in Huntington Terrace Road."

Problems at The Shew include assaults, criminal damage, drug possession, fighting, theft, and police officers challenging staff about letting people in after certain agreed times. Late night loud music has raised problems at the pub in the past, however, since work to address the problem in 2009 there were only four complaints about music in 2010.

Thomas Booth, managing director of Thomas Booth, managing director of TAP Security Solutions, has written to the council saying his firm of doormen has this month been approached to look after the pub. He said: "The manager of The Shrew approached me and asked me if I could help him with the security as he wanted to make concious effort to change the reputation of the venue and try and make a concious effort to change the reputation of the venue and try to make it a more appealing atmosphere to would be drinkers in the town."

Mr Booth has advised staff to stop serving drinks at 2.40am so people have a 'chill out' 20 minutes to finish their drinks and leave the premises.

and leave the premises.

Gavin Houston, who runs The Shrew, was not available for comment and police declined ahead of the sub-committee today (Thursday).

Fitness venture proves flawless

A CANNOCK woman who shed 14 stone in 11 months has opened a new business to help other women feel good. Five years ago Rose Woodward weighed nearly 27st. Ayear later she had shed more than half of that and has since kept the weight off. Keen to pass on her tips to help others, Mrs Woodward opened the Flawless Clinic in Great Wyrley.

After riding out the recession, the budding entrepreneur has now opened the Flawless Clinic and Wellbeing Centre at the Orbital Plaza, in Watling Street, Cannock.

Mrs Woodward said: "I bit the bullet and opened a health and beauty business which became very busy and successful over last year. So I have now opened my second business next to the Ramada Hotel.

start of work on a new base.

A sod-cutting ceremony, twice postponed, went ahead at Wyrley Juniors' new site at Long Lane, Essington.

The £918,000 project was due to kick off on January 10, but was put back for a week, only to be postponed again – on both occasions because of bad weather.

The club has 45 teams, and the new facilities will help increase that number to 50, with about 700 players.

Four changing rooms, medical room, kitchen, coaching development and community function own are being built.

Old Celtic magic brings horror to the 21st century

Outcast is a wannabe horror film which draws on ancient Celtic tradition and is set among the modern landscape of a bleak high rise estate somewhere in Edinburgh.

The plot centres around a mysterious mother and son who move into

The plot centres around a mysterious mother and son who move into one of the flats and are on the run from a deadly pursuer Cathal, played by a bearded James Nesbitt.

Using an ancient form of magic to keep themselves hidden from their hunter, Irish travellers Mary, played by Kate Dickie and her teenage son, Fergal – Niall Bruton, wind up in the dingy flat.

It seems their only neighbour is a family which includes the streetwise and pretty Petronella, a Scottish/Romany girl played by Hanna Stanbridge who befriends Fergal and finds him an oasis in the tangle of her life coping with her retarded brother and alcoholic mother.

Mary is extremely protective of her son and for good reason for they hide a secret which when unleashed leaves a trail of dead bodies. She is dedicated to keeping her son out of the clutches of Cathal but now has the added complication of keeping him away from any romantic entanglement with Petronella.

Cathal using his own style of dark magic to hunt his quarry creates panic for Mary and her son as she discovers he is closing in Using her own blood and protective symbols around their new home Mary uses all her witch-like powers to keep prying eyes away and to avoid the inevitable showdown with their Van Heising-style hunter.

Van Helsing-style hunter.
One of the problems with this film is it never seems sure of what it is, it's not gory enough and takes itself too seriously to be a takes itself too seriously to be a slasher movie. It isn't scary enough to be a full-blown horror film and doesn't really have enough special effects to be a sci-fi movie. You have to give it to director Colm McCarthy he does create a menacing arena with his shots of the bleak urban surroundings in which the characters dwell. However, Nesbitt is never fully convincing and even comes over as a little incompetent. Outcast doesn't really have the jump factor as a horror film and never really builds the tension high enough to keep you on the edge of your seat.

Developer offers plot as burial site

A LANDOWNER and developer has donated around 12 acres of land to help South Staffordshire Council cope with a shortage of burial spaces.

shortage of burial spaces.

Ken Lees, who lives in Teddesley Park, near Penkridge, has helped the council meet the urgent need for new cemetery provision in the northern part of the district.

Mr Lees has offered, for free, a five hectare plot of land off Upper Landywood Lane, in Great Wyrley.
The urgent need for burial space was identified some years ago. Mr Lees said he had had a long association with the Cheslyn Hay and Great Wyrley area.

Born in Lower Landywood, he worked in the local coal mining industry from the age of 15. Mr Lees said: "I subsequently have been in the for-tunate position to have been able to provide both new homes and also jobs in the area as my residen-tial and commercial con-struction business develtial and commercial construction business developed."

He added he had been fully aware of the need for new cemetery space.

"I obtained planning permission on the land concerned a few years ago and recently finalised various details so the site is ready to go."

Mr Lees said there was now enough space to cope for another 200 years.

South Staffs Council Leader Councillor Brian Edwards.

"Although we have no legal duty to provide cemeteries we know that the existing facilities in the north of the district will soon reach capacity."

"Mr Lees has made a very generous offer to the people of South Staffordshire and Cheslyn Hay and Great Wyrley in particular.

Restaurant job joy

TEN jobs have been created with the opening of a new bar and restaurant in Bridgtown.

Mojito and Taaj have been created by Solihull businessman Harvey Bains.

The premises at Orbital Plaza, in Bridge Street next to the Ramada Hotel, were previously the New York Brasserie.

A grand opening was held for cocktail bar and grill Mojito last Friday (January 28). A further event is planned to launch fusion dining experience Taaj later in the year.

planned to launch tusion dining experience 'laaj later in the year.

Mojito is open from 8.30am to 1pm Monday to Saturday. Mr Bains said it was his first business venture and said it had taken courage to invest in a new project in the wake of the recession. Taaj is open Monday to Saturday at 5.30pm.

IMPORTANT NOTICE

Following the coldest December since records began and before possibly the coldest Winter on record, now is the time to take advantage of grants to insulate your home and keep your property warmer whilst still reducing your fuel bills!

Scheme 1

This scheme is aimed at ordinary working people who are outside the benefit system and is not a means tested grant. The price you pay is based on property type and represents a real saving of at least 60% on the cost of cavity wall insulation. Prices quoted below are what you actually pay. We do all the necessary paperwork and claim the excess amount from the utility companies direct leaving you with a warm house at a fraction the normal cost

Property type	Cavity wall insulation	Loft insulation
Flat/Mid terraced house	£119	£199
Semi house/bungalow	£139	£199
Detached house/bungalow	£189	£199

Scheme 2 Benefit Holders

If you or your partner are in receipt of a qualifying benefit* then you will receive loft or cavity wall insulation totally free of charge

*Grants are also available for central heating, boiler replacement and draughtproofing*

Applicable benefits include - Income support, Pension Credit, Council Tax Benefit, Working or Child Tax Credit (with income less than ££16,400), Attendance Allowance & Disability Living Allowance.

Scheme 3 - Over 70's

If you or anyone permanently living in your house is over 70 years of age then you will receive cavity wall insulation totally free of charge. If your loft insulation is below 60mm in depth then this could also be topped up free as well. This is not means tested in any way shape or form!!!

Funny Girl proved a sad final stage bow for Sheila

SHEILA Steafel, like most actresses of a certain age, has melted away from our TV screens, which is a shame because she was one of the most gifted comic character actresses of the 1960s and

Even in her autobiography When Harry Met Sheila (Apex, hardback, £12.99) she shares billing with her former billing with her former husband of six years, the late GLASVEGAS are back. The Glaswe gian band set the rock scene alight with their self-titled debut album in

They seemed to fade from the scene last year but were actually busy writing and recording in California and New York, and are now set to return with their second album Euphoric Heartbreak and gigs including a concert at Wolverhampton's Slade Rooms in Broad Street on Wednesday, March 23, a rare chance to see a band that's played stadia in a small venue.

Tickets cost $12.50, available from Midland Box Office 870 320 7000 or www.wolvescivic.co.uk.

Steptoe And Son actor Harry H Corbett. This is no great work of showiz history but Sheila is engagingly honest, both about her unhappy childhood in apartheid-era South Africa and her relationship with Harry H.

There are lots of anecdotes from the golden age of British TV in the 1960s when Sheila had roles in such pioneering shows as David Frost's Frost

Over England in 1966 with John Cleese and Ronnies Barker and Corbett and in dramas ranging from Z Cars to The Prisoner. Those in their Ine Prisoner. Inose in their 40s may remember her as the White Lady in children's TV series The Ghosts of Motley Hall, though perhaps her finest TV moments were as Miss Popsy Wopsy, the aspiring music hall star of The Good Old Days. She had character roles with the Royal Shakespeare Company and one-woman shows during the 1980s and 90s but seems to have blown her chances of returning to screens via the BBC with a few ill-timed diva strops. Her last role on stage was as Mrs Brice in the 2008 as Mrs Brice in the 2008 Chichester Festival revival of the musical Funny Girl. She now regrets saying that if it was the last work she ever did it would have been worth it . . . she hasn't had a major acting job since. "I only wish that Whoever is Up There hadn't taken me quite so literally!"

The book features a warmhearted introduction from Claire Rayner, written shortly before her death last year.

Bryson's home visit full of facts

WRITER broadcaster and histovini Er, broadcaster and histo-rian Bill Bryson is good company, which makes his latest audiobook an experience like listening to an entertaining and informative friend.

The Anglophile American, who first moved to England in 1977, has written books on his travels and a hugely popular science book, A Short History of Neath Eventhing traveis and a nugely popular science book, A Short History of Nearly Everything.

But he turns his attention closer to home, indeed his own, in At Home: A Short History of Private Life (£14.99, Random House Audiobooks).

Moving from room to room and looking at everyday objects, he uncovers the extraordinary in the ordinary.

Each room or object is the starting point for an exploration of history and human ingenuity, the who-why-when-and-where of how the modern home came to be, which, naturally, also teaches us a lot about how people used to live in the past. The surprises come thick and fast and will supply the listener with an endless store of di-you-know anecdotes.

The book, even in an abridged form, takes six hours for Bryson

Bill Bryson - endless stories

Bill Bryson - endless stories to read over five CDs. Thankfully, it remains consistently interesting and his warm midwestern tone is easy on the ear:
Less easy on the ear is the bogus Russian accent of Aleksandr Orlov, the 'author' who reads A Simples Life (24.99, Random House Audiobooks), a Random House Audiobooks), a spoof biography of the Muscovite Meerkats who feature in a popular series of television adverts. It's thin stuff even for an hour-long CD, a mildy amusing explanation of how the meerkats came from Africa to old Russia.

Showstopper! The Improvised Musical

Showstopper! The Improvised Musical Arena Theatre
LIVING on their wits, the Showstopper ensemble never perform the same show twice. This fast-thinking, highly-talented group create a musical on the spot from suggestions shouted by the audience.
This makes for a unique and exciting experience with the audience an integral part of the process. It's like a Whose Line Is It Anyway sketch but massively expanded and given a West End flavour. Showstopper recently made the transition to BBC Radio 4's 6.30 comedy slot on Wednesdays, and the Wolverhampton audience came prepared with ideas at this one-nighter on Friday.
Six actor/singers were accompanied by a keyboardist and, with only a few props, had to create magic from the combination of title, location, era and musical theatre styles. These were chosen by narrator, Sean McCann, from audience suggestions. He certainly put the actors through their paces with increasingly bizarre stage directions.
So, largely due to audience member Geoff, we saw the 99-minute musical An Afternoon On A Ship about a cruise ship sailing from Dudley Port to about a cruise ship sailing from Dudley Port to Bermuda, where love blossoms between sailor Trey (Oliver Senton) and Black Country housewife Louise (brilliant Pippa Evans) despite the presence of her cross-dressing husband Peter (Andrew Pugsley), one half of cabaret cruise act Foxfire. Throw into the mix a singing waxwork Chinaman and a kung fu fighting dog, and you see just how surreal it got. But the song styles remained spot on, with the Phantom of the Opera and Les Miserables pastiches being real showstoppers. Leon Burakowsk

Leon Burakowski

Milton Jones, Wolverhampton Civic Hall
SHARP, quick-witted, erudite, haphazard, surreal, endearing. All these are true of comics' comic Milton Jones, who gave his audience a night to remember with his off-beat, unorthodox humour.

In fact, this was two Miltons for the price of one, with the first support act being his 'granddad', a delightful 15-minute ditty covering an alternative view of important moments in history set the standard, detailing such events as the world's first weather report and how Mozart actually met a grisly and untimely death.

Don't be fooled by the silly shirts or ridiculous hair; Jones is as clever as they come and handles audience banter with aplomb, seemingly armed with killer lines for every eventuality throw at him.

The influences of Tommy Cooper and Ronnie Barker are evident but this is a comedian who puts his own indelible mark on the comedy circuit, dishing out fast-paced one-liners better than anyone, usually laced with charming word play.

No joke is more than a few lines long and the subjects covered during an exuberant 80-minute set are too many to list, but not once does he reduce himself to swearing or toilet humour. As every good comedian does, he leaves the audience wanting more; at this rate we'll all be seeing a lot more of him.

Developer building on a successful year

The developer's success throughout the Midlands suggests that demand for new homes is still strong ↑TAFF at a leading local developer are celebrating after enjoying remarkable sales success last year, showing that, despite the mixed national picture, demand for new homes in the picture, demand for new homes in the area remains strong.

Barratt West Midlands legally completed 144 properties worth more than £19.5 million in the final six months of 2010 – hitting its own internal targets and providing evidence that demand in the local housing market remains strong.

Graydon Worthing, sales director at the house-builder, says: "We are proud of our reputation for building high quality homes in great locations throughout the region

"This has enabled us to perform strongly despite the uncertainty about the wider economy at the moment.

"It is clear that plenty of customers think now is a great time to take their next step on the property ladder. Prices are lower than they were in 2007 and interest rates are low too, which means rock bottom mortgage repayments."

"What gives us the edge over other people selling homes is that we can provide customers with innovative financial incentives which enable them toget a mortgage – the key issue for anyone buying today."

"It's a great result for the last six months and speaks volumes about the talent and commitment of our team. We're hoping for continued success and many more satisfied customers in 2011."

1. Get your temperatures right –the bank.

1. Get your temperatures right -the optimum temperature for your living room is 21°C, 18°C for bedrooms and 16°C for halls. The recommended temperature for the hot water cylinder thermostat is 60°C

2. Keep out the draughts - look for simple ways to keep the heat in; close doors, install draught excluders, check the seals on your windows and don't forget to draw the curtains

3. Use your thermostats wisely - small adjustments can make a big difference when it comes to heating. You can save up to 10 per cent on your heating bill by just turning your thermostat down by 1°C

4. Don't be a blocker - cluttering your radiators with items such as wet clothes will significantly reduce the amount of heat they give out, make sure there is plently of space around your radiators for the hot air to circulate

5. Waste not, want not - if you are not the hot air to circulate

5. Waste not, want not – if you are not using a room then don't heat it, turn off radiators in rooms which are empty

6. Love your boiler – regular servicing of your boiler will ensure it's working at its most efficient level all year round. If it's been more than12 months since the last service then don't forget to book one in

7. Embrace new technologies - Smart 7. Embrace new technologies - Smart meters are new digital devices which provide remote meter readings automatically to energy suppliers. Using a smart meter means you can track you energy consumption on a day-to-day basis. The Department for Energy and Climate Change has outlined plans to ensure every home in the UK has a smart meter by 2020 and its predicted the installation of smart meters will save consumers up to £3.6 billion over the next 20 years.

e-catching Italian with an ed

OMETIMES it takes a clever piece of technology or simply a particular engine to make you look at a car in a different light.

In the case of Fiat's 500, the Italian firm's Twinair two-cylinder petrol engine is a reveletion.

Italian firm's Twinair two-cylinder petrol engine is a revelation.
Delivering low emissions and fuel consumption with the energy and character of its pioneering predecessor, the two-pot 500 is a joy to drive.
At the other end of the performance spectrum is the 500° Abarth. Fans of the 500 will instantly be familiar with the Abarth's go-faster connotations. In a nutshell, the tuning sub-brand offers affordable sporting thrills thanks to a range of well judged upgrades – not a range of well judged upgrades - not a million miles from Abarth's roots.

Concept

Concept
The 500 Abarth isn't an entirely new concept. You've been able to buy such a car for some time. What hasn't been possible until recently was to buy one in convertible form. As if a 140 horsepower 500 wasn't decadent enough, Fiat have cut the roof off.
Strictly speaking the 500C boasts a roll back roof, as the car retains the door frame structure of its tin-top relative. This fabric cover can be electrically wound back the car's full length, includes a heated glass screen and offers near-hatchback levels of refinement when in place. ment when in place.

Somehow, even though a hatchback Abarth exists, it's hard not to be

The Abarth has an 'edgy' character

The car has a semi-automatic gearbox charmed by the 500C model and its enhanced features. Certainly, with the roof down, it's easier to hear the car's feisty engine thanks in part to a pair of oversize exhaust pipes.

oversize exnaust pipes.

Those pipes join a modest but purposeful bodykit, chunky steering wheel, supportive sports seats, stylish alloy wheels and, crucially, retuned suspension settings. Ah yes, the main reason for buying the 500C Abarth is its performance potential. And while it won't worry the genuine hot hatchbacks occupying higher price points, the usable and accessible nature of this 500's performance is not to be sneezed at.

The 1.4-litre turbo petrol motor might produce "only" 140 horsepower, but in a car this size that's plenty. This rev-happy engine snarls its way along, emitting a buzzy, impatient sound that's highly addictive. In an unusual move, the 500C Abarth comes with a semi-auto gearbox complete with steering wheel paddleshifters.

lt's unusual for two reasons: Such technology isn't cheap, yet Fiat has managed to position the car competitively, plus this technology always divides opinion. Luddites will bemoan the lack of a clutch pedal – the 500's gearbox is essentially a manual 'box with the clutch action controlled electronically

In practice, leaving the car in Auto mode does require the driver to second-guess shift points and feather the throttle accordingly. And, yes, that does take practice. However, stick the car in manual mode and you have full control over gearchanges. This is by far control over gearchanges. This is by far a more rewarding experience, and it doesn't take long before you're zipping up and down the gears with those deliciously weighted paddles.

Better still is the car's Sport mode, which adds more weight to the steering and sharpens the combined responses of the engine and gearbox. Frankly, this can be left engaged all the time; far from turning the 5000 into a temperamental trackday monster the sharper responses are welcome. Gearchanges feel crisper and there's an audible change in the 500's exhaust note, giving it a 'big car' sound.

Rewarding

Rewarding

In short, the car is a hoot to drive. The 500C Abarth growls and screams its way from gear to gear, corner to corner. For a small car with sports suspension its ride is supple, too.

On a basic level the 500C Abarth displays an edgy character that the regular, cute 500 lacks. Not everyone wants a bulging bodykit and a beefy exhaust, which is why so many regular 500s have found homes. But that 'edge' is precisely what the 500 needs to appeal to a section of the public seeking a fun, small car with talent.

It's easy for car makers to bolt on gofaster bits to create the illusion of enhanced performance. Fiat has done a thorough job with this 500C – some-

a thorough job with this 500C – some thing of which Abarth fans can be proud. h fans can be

FOR AN IMPRESSIVE ninth year in a row, Mini's commitment to manufacturing frugal and fast premium small cars has been recognised as the Mini Hatch was named Supermini of the Year by BusinessCar Magazine. Mini's unbeatable mix of performance, low running costs and CO2 emissions, coupled with high residual values are just some of the reasons why it has proven to be so reasons why it has proven to be so successful with business car users.

Jochen Goller, director Mini UK, said "We are delighted to receive this prestigious recognition from BusinessCar.

"The corporate sales channel has increased in importance for Mini since the recent launch of the fourth member of the Mini family.

"The new four-door Mini Coun-tryman has already generated huge interest in the fleet market amongst buyers seeking the unique Mini driving experience combined with increased space and practicality." BusinessCar editor Paul Barker BusinessCar editor Paul Barker said: *Normally it would be incredible to see a car hold onto its title for nine years, but with the Mini's unbeatable running costs and driver appeal, it's no surprise to see it take the Supermini of the Year Award for a ninth straight year.

Incredible

"The excellent residual values and economy mean it's a small car that makes big sense for busi-

As with all Mini models, both the As with all Mini models, both the Mini One D and Mini Cooper D comply with the EU5 emission standard and they achieve the same low fuel consumption of 74.3 mpg and CO2 emissions of 99 g/km.

These values are an absolute record for any series production car produced by the BMW Group. In addition to the high efficiency of the diesel engine in the Mini One D and Cooper D, under the Minimalism umbrella both cars employ a host of fuel-saving and emission lowering technology including Brake Energy Regeneration, Auto Start-Stop, Gearshift Indicator and Electromechanical Power Steer-

All of these technologies and the manual standard six-speed manual gearbox play a role in eking the most out of every drop of fuel while also minimising the tailpipe emis-

five-door and three-door bodystyles – the three-door will not arrive in the UK until the autumn – it is set to completely redefine its position as one of the most competitive vehicles in the city car segment.

cles in the city car segment.

Across the globe, buyers of the new Picanto will have a choice of up to four allnew super-efficient powertrains – three versions of the one-litre, three-cylinder Kappa engine (petrol, flex fuel and bi-fuel) and a single 1.2-litre four-cylinder petrol Kappa power unit. The exact choice will depend on individual markets.

Reduced

Power outputs will range from 69 to 85 ps, with maximum torque between 94 and 121 Nm. Exhaust emissions have been significantly reduced, so that regular models in the new Picanto line-up will have a CO2 rating of 95 to 105 g/km.

In the UK, some models will be available with Kia's fuel-stretching ISG technologies cutting emissions to between 90 and 100g/km.

The engines will be mated to a choice of five-speed manual or four-speed automatic five-speed manual or four-speed automatic transmissions, depending on model. Kia feels the Picanto will be a highly competitive newcomer in the city car segment.

As well as offering new levels of power-train efficiency, it boasts a distinctive exterior, sophisticated interiors, and numerous 'large car' advanced comfort and safety features like LED daytime running lights, button-start with smart key, grip-type outside door handles and six or seven airbags, depending on model.

Pricing for the UK and European markets will not be announced until closer to the launch date.

THE BMW Group has scooped seven awards from one of the country's leading fleet publications. BusinessCar magazine honoured the BMW Group with the headline accolade of Manufacturer of the Year, for the third year in a row, in recognition of the firm's diverse product portfolio and class-leading running costs. in a row and on top of its main billing, the new 5 Series was named Executive Car of the Year.

Voted for solely by its readership, the BusinessCar Awards reflect the opinions of the people who really matter in the fleet industry, giving the awards a particular gravitas.

Impressive

BusinessCar editor Paul Barker said:
"BMW's massive achievement in providing cars that are both cost-efficient to run and desirable to staff has led to a well deserved and very impressive seven awards, including all three of the headline car awards.
"The new 5 Series was the obvious choice as BusinessCar of the Year, while the 320d Efficient Dynamics has seemingly achieved the impossible when you combine its emis-

sics, build quality and economy sions figure with its size and performance.
And BMW's model range meant it would always be the favourite for Manufacturer of the Year thanks to the stunning emissions and economy figures combined with unmatched badge appeal in the corporate sector."
Sean Green, sales director BMW Group
UK, said: "To win the big three from BusinessCar is a huge honour, as there are no other awards which can claim that they truly represent the views of the industry in quite the same way.
"The corporate customer is very important to BMW and with models such as the award winning 320d Efficient/Dynamics and new BMW 5 Series, we are dedicated to staying ahead of our rivals and exceeding customer expectations."

Rugeley Town Centre Conservation Area, Appraisal

Rugeley Town Centre Conservation Area, Management Plan

Main Road, Rivereton Conservation Area. Management Plan

Thent and Mersey Canal within Cannock Chase District Conservation Area. Appraisal

CONSERVATION ARRAS MANAGEMENT PLAN

Draft Conservation Area, documents have been prepared for Rugeley Town Centre, Main Road, Breveton and The Trent and Mersey Ganal Conservation Areas together with a generic Conservation Areas Management Plan. The documents have been prepared by Cannock Chase District Council and are based on the policies contained in the saved Cannock Chase Local Plan 1997. The documents were approved for consultation purposes by the Cabinet of Carmock Chase District Council on 18 March 2010.

The documents can be viewed at the Civic Centre, Cannock Chase District Council, Beecoft Road, Cannock, during normal office hours, also at the Engeley Area Office, Anson Streeti Engeley Library, Anson Street and Brereton Library, Talbot Road, Brereton, during opening times and on the Council's www.cenmockchesedo.gov.uk/plenming/plenming-pling. website.

Any comments on the contents of the documents should be addressed in writing to Planning Policy Cannock Chase District Conneil, P.O. Box 28, Recordt Noad, Cannock, WSTI IBG or by eniail to planningpolicy@ca.mockchase&c.gov.nk by Mon&ay, 14 March 2011. All comments will be reported to a finture Cabinet meeting for consideration prior to adoption by the Conneil.

The purpose of the documents once adopted will be for use as a guide in the determination of planning applications in the District and enhancement of the conservation areas.

opposition to give Lea Hall a tough match.

Burntwood came close to taking the lead, but it was a solid display from the back four, as well as a dominant display in the middle from Man of the Match Tom Johnson, that kept Lea Hall from taking all the points.

AFC CANNOCK TOWN BURNTWOOD DRAGONS REDS U14S 10
Dragons' keeper Sam Woodall pulled off a fantastic save in the first 30 seconds to stop AFC taking an early lead, then straight after a quick break from Burntwood saw Man of the Match Keiron Jones put a superp bass through to Nathan Hodges to put Dragons ahead.

A Tom Price hat-trick before the break gave Burntwood a decent lead. The second half saw goals from Bailey Heanon, Brad Taylor, Hodges and a Shaun Keeley hat-trick.

Burntwood Dragons & Phoenix are looking for players for their new u-7s team from September. Anyone currently in school Year 1 that wishes to be part of the club should contact Andy Taylor on 07881 781802.

The Rugeley scrum in action against St Leonards on their way to a hard-fought 15-11 win

RUGELEY RUFC 15 ST LEONARDS RFC 11

RUGELEY RUFC 15 ST LEONARDS RFC 11 RUGELEY played host to a strong St Leonards side on Saturday. With the three teams now being rele-gated, this might prove the decisive game for Rugeley maintaining their league status.

rame for Rugeley maintaining their league status.

The first half and much of the game possession was with St Leonards.

Rugeley could only muster a few phases of play together and were not able to stable to form the form to stick to the game plan they had going into the game.

The first points came from a penalty conceded for petulance from a Rugeley player, which the St Leonards' Number 10 converted.

The key difference, although the away team dominated possession, was that on the attack Rugeley looked dangerous. This was shown first with numerous line breaks from Nesbitt, who eventually went over the line for an unconverted try. Rugeley quickly followed this up with an unconverted try from Archer. At one stage even Johnson with his trade mark dummy looked like he was going to go in under the post. Unfortunately, he was to be denied.

St Leonards did reply with a try in the corner in the later stages of the first half but Rugeley went in at half time 10-8 up.

Dominating

The second half started with St Leonards dominating possession and they were rewarded when they took the lead with another penalty.

Rugeley, looking the more dangerous of the two when they got the ball, went on the attack with the move of the match, which allowed Lyons to go in the corner.

On the positive, in previous seasons and even at the start of this one Rugeley's defence would have buckled. But the organisation the coaching team is instilling in defence actually meant St Leonards started to run out of ideas.

bing by Stourport and were 2-0 up after 20 minutes. The home side were passing the ball around nicely and the move-ment off the ball was much better than previous weeks. Harborne got back into the game after some bad defending and equalised from a contentious short corner.

Despite playing some good hockey, Cannock remained frustrated and went in level at half time.

With the wise words from captain With the wise words from captain and coach still ringing in their ears the home side gave the kind of display in the second half that they have been waiting weeks for.

Some great running and first time passing saw them create a lot of chances while the defence were more organised.

Cannock scored four more and a spirited Harborne side got one back with the last touch of the game to make it 6-3.

A great result in a league that looks like its going down to the wire with half the league still in contention!

LICHFIELD MEN'S 1ST 6 WARWICK 1

LICHFIELD MEN'S 1ST 6 WARWICK 1

NOT much was made about free agent Thomas Bacon returning to his old stomping ground in the summer of 2010. After impressing the coaches in the pre season tour of Peru he was handed a one year deal, and the local lad is finally starting to repay the club's faith. Webb started the rout with his trademark drag flick, culminating in his 25th goal of the season. With the transfer window now slammed shut, the Lichfield coaching staff will be elated to have kept hold of their prized asset. It was soon 2-0 with James Mason grabbing a rare goal with a precise shot which found the bottom corner. The game then turned scrappy, and coupled with the bitter wind and pedantic umpiring, the players were relieved when half time arrived.

In the second half Warwick hauled themselves back into the game with a drag flick of their own. At 2-1 the game with a drag flick of their own. At 2-1 the game with a frag flick of their own. Before firing a shot past the goal keeper. This was his fourth goal against Warwick and the opposition will be pleased to see the back for the creative Russian.

The floodgates then opened as Warwick fell apart. With Rodgers and Mason protecting the back four, it enabled Bacon, Rogers, Gardiner, Webb and Campbell to wreak havoc.

Atrademark counter attack started by Bacon found Campbell one on one. The workhorse calmly lifted it over the oncoming keeper and it found the net via a deflection.

The fifth was easily the goal of the game. Some slick passing between Rodgers, Campbell and Bacon left Gardiner with the simplest of tasks and a polished finish put the game beyond doubt.

There was still time for Bacon to claim a hat trick of assists after a stunning reverse shot fell

MEN'S 2NO STREETLY 3.

Lichfield's poor run of form continued as they slumped to a 3-0 defeat to mid-table Streetly on Saturday. With skipper Paul Lewis unavailable, it was left to understudy and former international Baldwyn to rally the troops.

The first half was predominately played in Streetly's half as Lichfield enjoyed the lion's share of possession, but as in recent weeks just lacked a cutting edge in the final third. An eye injury to Andy Parker led to some time off the pitch but with the score 0-0 at half time Lichfield felt confident they could go on and win the game.

What happened was quite the opposite as Streetly staged a classic smash and grab with two quick goals scored on the counter attack. This opened the game up and as Lichfield tried to push on and chase the game they left themselves wide open and Streetly took full advantage as they killed the game off with a 3rd goal passed a stranded Hilton.

NORTH MOTTS 1 MEN'S 2ND 3

The next day Lichfield ended their recent run of poor form at a tricky rearranged away game at North Notts. With current international Bladwyn, Lichfield started well and looked to press high up the pitch. With both umpires stamping their mark on the game, Lichfield had to be wary of tackling and any back chat. Lichfield took the lead mid way through the first half as good work from Gleeson down the left found Humphries, whose cross picked out Childs, who calmly lifted the ball over the advancing keeper. With both sides enjoying spells of possession and with only half chances created Lichfield were content with their first half swork.

They extended their lead early in the second half as Parkers finished coolly on his reverse side after his initial air shot. With tempers getting a little frayed, Lichfield killed the game off with a third goal. Humphries got in front of his marker at the far post to divert Parkers

With the defensive unit of Clarke, Jackson, Turner and Gleeson holding firm, Lichfield looked to keep the ball and wind the clock down. Unfortunately there was time for Clarke to be sin binned for talking to the unpire so a quick restructure brought Astle to sweeper and Bailey into midfield alongside Morris.
Notts scored a consolation goal from a short corner at the second attempt which Hilton will feel be should have done better with

Rickie hits final

AFTER a mistake by the Amateur Boxing Association, Great Wyrley boxer Rickie Arblaster found himself having to box a semi-final instead of being in a Midland Final for the second year running. In the opposite corner was Edward Drayton, of Scunthorpe ABC. The mistake by the ABA itself may yet prove to be a blessing in disguise as Arblaster shook off the ring rust and won a unanimous decision to move forward to his second Midland Final. Drayton came out swinging in the first 20 seconds but Arblaster got behind his left jab and was moving the Scunthorpe boxer back towards the end of the first round.

It was all Arblaster in the second round as he

It was all Arblaster in the second round as he started to move through the gears and mix his shots to both head and body as Drayton started to tire. Arblaster completely took over in the last round, pinning Drayton on the ropes and unloading heavy shots, particularly the right uppercut, giving the referee no option but to impose a standing count. On resumption, Arblaster tried to land the finisher but the gutsy Scunthorpe boxer gritted it out to the end. A good performance by Rickie who can go into the final next week full of confidence.

Had Cannock had all players from their squad available for selection, they would probably never have got a result against this proficient side, which if kept together as they were this week, will undoubtedly run away with the league title. CHASETOWN make their long-awaited FA Trophy trip to Eastleigh this weekend on the back of a Birmingham Senior Cup defeat against local rivals Rushall.

Despite a good opening to the evening the Scholars were unable to keep their rhythm going and eventually bowed out after being overcome in the second half.

A decent fast-paced start saw neither side libe to ke out an early advantage, Pies keeper Chris Gemmell tipping away a Mark Branch corner while Ahmed Obeng fired straight at Darren Acton in the 13th minute. Adangerous-looking free kick was sent into the Scholars wall by Gary Fitzpatrick as the risitors turned up the pressure, Acton forced into a fine diving save by Obeng on 21 minutes as the relentless pace was kept up in a good display from both sides. Chasetown Chasetown tried to find a way back, Dave Egan firing across the face of goal but again no finishing touch could be provided while a similar effort from Danny Smith found only the side netting. Matty Cohen also took a knock leaving the hosts down to 10 men for the last 20 minutes, but this did not slow the Scholars down and still they pressed their Evo-Stik South opponents.
